

Marc Sauter's
Wine Of The Month

Each month Marc will hunt for a white and red (sometimes sparkling or rosé), wines that are fantastic finds, and feature them as retail specials for the month. August & September's wines will be...

Mount Nelson Sauvignon Blanc, Marlborough, New Zealand 2016

Crisp, clean and tangy. Meyer lemon meets breakfast pink grapefruit and grapefruit rind. Sweet on the nose, yet tart and dry on the palate. Perfect wine for outdoors to finish the summer off and coast into fall. Drink before year's end.

MS Score 93

$19.99/Bottle – Not available for in house dining

Goldschmidt "Singing Tree" Chardonnay, Russian River Valley, CA 2014

Hands down the best Russian River Valley chardonnay under $40 I have ever had. Russian River Valley is nestled in the heart of Sonoma and is arguably considered the best region in America to grow and make chardonnay, so usually they are quite pricey. What a find this Goldschmidt is. Incredibly balanced, lemon, apple, vanilla with a perfect agreeable layer of French oak.

MS Score 94

MS Score 99 based on price, quality & region

$19.99/Bottle – Not available for in house dining

Lincourt "Rancho Santa Rosa" Pinot Noir, Sta. Rita Hills, CA 2014

Bright, lush, almost sweet cherry with a hint of maple. Don't let me mislead, there is no residual sugar. Super smooth with gentle spices. You're going to make a lot of friends with this baby.

MS Score 94

Drink now or hold until 2021

$25.00/Bottle – Not available for in house dining

These wines are available for purchase at Zoes.

These prices are available for retail/to-go ONLY

and not offered for in-house dining.

These prices are available through the month of September ONLY.

---

